

Meeting for Busy Men and Women

NARBERTH SCHOOL NIGHT

Friday, May 2nd, 8.00 P. M. School Auditorium

These are days of few idle moments. Why run the risk of waste time listening to "they say"? Come to the school, hear a straightforward talk on the Narberth Schools by an authority.

No taxpayer or friend of schools can afford to be ignorant of local conditions in Democracy's Agent—the Public Schools!

Proposed By-Laws of the Main Line Community Council

1. The name of this organization shall be "The Main Line Community Council."

New organizations shall be admitted by a majority vote of those present at a regular or special meeting. Due notice shall be given of a proposed election of new members at a regular or special meeting, and voted upon at the next meeting.
4. Each co-operating organization shall elect one representative and an alternate to represent it on the "Council."
5. Regular meetings of the "Council" shall be held on the first Tuesday evening of alternate months beginning in October. Special meeting may be called at any time by the officers. Fifteen shall constitute a quorum.
6. The officers of the "Council" shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The duties of the officers shall be those usually assigned.

The "M. P. R. S. Class" Hike

Walton Foote, Bill Gray, Jack Cunningham and Bill Webb were the only members of Mr. Bowen's Sunday School class who had courage enough to beat the sun up last Friday morning and go with him on an all-day tramp. Raw eggs, some destined to be broken on the way, bacon, potatoes and beans, etc., filled the knapsacks.

"Footy" was the only "tenderfoot," having partaken of a real home cooked breakfast before leaving at 6 A. M. But you know nobody can get ahead of Mrs. Foote.

A camping site was selected at Gulph Mills after a half hour's search for a dry spot, and then for a day of fire-building, frying pan meals (even the tea brought by our English friend was brewed in this all-round utensil), and pin-hook fishing with nary a bite.

It was a tired but happy bunch that dragged along toward Narberth in mid-afternoon, and loud as were the boasts of stores of surplus energy, they all jumped at the opportunity to ride from Villanova to Haverford in the touring car of a kind Samaritan.

Class Activities Varied.

The M. P. R. S. Class believes in stunts that are helpful as well as enjoyable and that tend to build up a manhood that is four-square. They meet, of course, with the Sunday School (Methodist) every Sunday morning and discuss the graded lesson for that day, and in addition meet at least once during each week for other activities. Among the latter have been a trip to the observatory of the U. of P. astronomical department, with 11 boys present, a top-notch social at Walton Foote's, a trip through the historic heart of Philadelphia, and the last one, the hike.

Another social, a boat trip down the Delaware and another hike are on the schedule for May.

Service for others is also playing a large part in the life of this class. An adoption pledge to pay $5.00 per month during this year in order that an Armenian orphan boy might be fed and clothed is one act along that line. To carry this plan through an attempt will be made within the next week to fill the class treasury by selling some useful commodity. If you are asked to buy, remember the purpose.

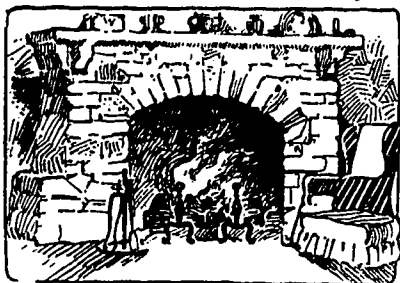

The objective of all these doings is that each member of the class will be helped to increase, as did Jesus (Luke 2: 52) in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

THE FIRESIDE

Our Town acknowledges with thanks receipt of a donation of $3.00 from Class 1919, Narberth High School.

Miss Ruth E. Prescott is entertaining a large house party this week end at her bungalow at Ocean City in honor of Mr. and Mrs. P. Don Enfield, of Washington.

The Women's Auxiliary invite you to their Home Bake on Saturday, April 26th, from 11 to 1 o'clock. The prices will interest you.

The Main Line Community Council will hold its second meeting in the Milestone, 845 Lancaster avenue, Bryn Mawr, on May 6th, at 8 o'clock.

Lieut. Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Cameron have returned to Narberth from an extensive tour throughout the South. Lieut. Dr. Cameron was formerly stationed at Camp Wheeler, Ga.

Are you using the "Calendar of Coming Events" for your organization? Its use is free, and the opportunity of placing "your event" conspicuously before the people of Narberth should not be neglected.

Have you read the "Objects" of the Narberth Civic Association at the top of the last column of page one? If you have, and are still unmindful of its appeal, you evidently are not allowing the opportunity of "doing your bit" for Narberth worry you to any great extent. The Civic Association needs your support.

William Farnum appears once more in a strong elemental role in the six-act photo drama, "The Man Hunter," to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday. The wreck of a great passenger vessel at sea is a strong feature of this number, and Mr. Farnum "conducts" two of the most realistic fight scenes recently staged. There is splendid dramatic interest in a most unusual story "just full" of action every moment.

The Seventh Annual Pony and Dog Show, in aid of Workman Place House, will be held at the residence of Mr. W. J. Clothier, Wynnewood, on Wednesday, May 14, at 11 A. M. In case of rain the show will be postponed until the following day. Entries for Dog Show close May 8th, and should be sent with entry fees to Mrs. E. F. Rivinus, Chestnut Hill, the entry fee being 50 cents in each class. Post entries taken at the Show, $1.00. Judging will start promptly at 11 A. M. There will be Puppy, Novice, American Bred and Open Classes, both sexes for all breeds. Many very handsome cups offered as special prizes. The list of prizes for the Pony Show will be sent out in a few days. Entries close May 5th, and should be sent to Mrs. Victor C. Mather, Haverford. An interesting feature of the Show this year will be several Gymkhana Races for children.

A beginners' course of ten lectures in practical playground work will be started next week at the Community Centre in the Bryn Mawr Public School on Lancaster Pike. The idea is to train assistants to local playground directors.

The course will include paper and cardboard construction, sloyd, modelling and water color. There will be preparation in games, such as ring games, finger games, games of imitation, counting and tossing ball and gymnastic games, memory games and rhymes.

Story-telling, songs and riddles will be taken up, and two lectures will deal with child psychology.

Miss Mary P. Compton, Children's Worker and Playground Supervisor at Bryn Mawr and Preston, is giving the course, for which a charge of $3.00 will be made, the proceeds to be used by the Bryn Mawr Community Centre.

Enrollment and the first lecture will take place on Friday, April 25th, at 4.30.

The course is open to anyone, and will be continued on Tuesday and Friday afternoons at the same hour (4.30) until completed on May 27th.

Clean-Up Week

Starting April 28, a clean-up week and ash collection will be carried on jointly. The same schedule will be followed. All rubbish to be removed must be placed on sidewalk.

Collections start at 7 o'clock A. M. and collectors will only cover the route once.

Ashes will again be collected during the week of May 12-17, and thereafter once each month until October.

C. E. HUMPHREYS,
Street Commissioner.

School Meeting May 2, 8 P. M.

Dr. Reed B. Tietrick, Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction, will address the citizens of Narberth on the needs of the Narberth schools.

The meeting will be open for discussion from the floor.

This is an opportunity for busy men to get in direct touch with school problems.

POSTMASTER EXAMINATION.

At the request of the Postmaster General the United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Narberth, Pa., on May 21, 1919, for the position of Postmaster at Cynwyd. This office has an annual compensation of $1,800.

To be eligible for this examination an applicant must be a citizen of the United States, must actually reside within the delivery of the office and have so resided at the time the vacancy occurred.

Applicants must have reached their 21st but not their 65th birthday on the date of examination.

Application Form 304 and full information concerning the requirements of the examination may be secured from the Postmaster at the place of vacancy or from the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington, D. C., in time to arrange for the examination of the applicant.

$90,000,000 IN LOWER MERION TAX RETURNS.

Township's Personality and Real Estate Is Assessed at Huge Sum.

With real estate valuations of a little over $31,000,000, and personal property returns between $55,000,000 and $60,000,000, Lower Merion Township's tax returns this year will easily exceed $90,000,000. The township, which extends from Overbrook to Villanova, and borders on the Schuylkill River on one side and the Delaware County line on the other, will pay more than one-third of the taxes of Montgomery County. From the standpoint of personal property alone its residents lead the United States, it is believed, in wealth.

Less than $10,000 was sliced off the real estate assessments by the County Commissioners at appeals heard from the findings of Albert Lee, the assessor, and his two assistants in the triennial assessment, just completed.

Mr. Lee has obtained practically 100 per cent. returns of personal property from the millionaire residents of the township, on which a 4-mill State tax is turned over to the county.

WAR STAMPS.

To invest in War Stamps is not only a patriotic duty which all of us should regard, but it is an investment which cannot be beaten because of the rate of interest paid and the privileges connected with it. Union County, Pa., has purchased $3.19 per capita for 1919, and three months of the year have not passed. Montgomery County has purchased $.55 per capita and Narberth $.85 per capita. The good patriotic people of our town should give proper attention to War Stamps.

COMMENT ON PLAY GIVEN BY SENIOR CLASS.

I want to congratulate the Senior Class of the Narberth High Schools on behalf of the Alumni Association of the School upon the peppy little play they gave recently. Every one in it, from Chia up to the leading man—Tom Harrington, alias our very own George Rose—was right on their toes and carried the whole plot out in a very natural and quite artistic and professional manner. For instance, the dear little Siss—James Wolberts, or as we know him, John Schaffer, made his debut in theatricals on Saturday night, and it sure was a good start. His part was anything but easy, and I don't know just how he could have improved it. Tom Martin in his role of Reggy Black showed lots of natural ability, and we believe he would prove just as good a friend to a fellow in real life as he did to Tom Harrington. Philip Livingston as Prof. James was one of the shining stars of the evening, and when he went through his "Frat. signals" he had the whole audience in convulsions. Then there was Fred Harsch as Dan, the mountaineer, throwing money right and left—you had to take a good peep at the program to realize just who he was, with his "shonout" mountain drawl. He sure was clever. And talk about your nice little widows! If Dorothy Wilson wasn't ideal for the part, I'd like to know who was? And say, people who didn't know Gilbert Ford swore up and down he was a real, honest-to-goodness old man of "at least 30 or 35!" How do you like that, Gilbert? Shows how good and natural you were. Couldn't have been a better old Dad than Gil., with his deep voice and his avoirdupois to help, and his calm and dignified poise. And, boys, you missed seeing three of the prettiest girls in Narberth if you didn't see Mary Chalfant, Eleanor Eyre, and Elizabeth Miller. And not only the looks, either; each one of 'em could act like a streak. And, oh boy! Maybe they couldn't make love to the boys! Wonder who taught 'em? Maybe they come by it naturally!

John Wilson had plenty of pep as the gym director and showed Tom Harrington who was boss, almighty, almighty. And dear little Chia sure had the cute little accent with her "Yees!" given just at the right time. Then those two collectors, Florence Haaf and Elizabeth Miesen, were just emphatic enough and acted just as if they had been in the business for a long, long time.

The plot was splendid all the way through, the actors exceptionally good, and everybody had lots and lots of good laughs, and in short it could be pronounced a wonderful success. The Class deserves credit, and we would say it was about the best show ever given in the school. And right here it should be said any program containing the wording, "Under the direction of Miss M. Louis Boynton," will always be a success.

R. E. P. '11,

Member of N. H. S. Alumni Association.

WATCH YOUR FLOWERS!

To the Editor of Our Town:

Growers of spring flowers should be on the alert to catch stealers of these blossoms. School children seem possessed to "carry flowers to teacher," or else to play with them awhile, then throw them away, or perhaps decorate a horse's headstall. And older people are not above committing the same theft.

A resident on Narberth avenue has had all her early bulb flowers stolen, and her planted garden run over. Another has had two laurel plants pulled up and carried off, and a third broken off. These were brought with much trouble from Mill Creek five years ago, and one had just come into bud for the first time. There was nothing to attract a child, and an older person is believed to be the thief.

While on this subject let me speak of the growing lawlessness in crossing private grounds, which keeps pace with the growing population. Owing to the sharp angle made by Narberth avenue and the Pike, there is constant temptation to make short cuts, even where fences have been put up, and residents have to spend too much time watching for and warning off these trespassers. Much of this running through is done late at night or early in the morning, judging from the footprints, when they cannot be readily watched. I refrain from mentioning the names of those who have been seen going through.

This thieving seems to be the result of an incipient Bolshevism, which ignores the rights of private property. The attention of Mr. Hill and the Home Guard might be directed to the matter.

A SUFFERER.

SCHOOL NOTES

NOTES AND COMMENTS. By Invictus.

We record with sorrow the death of Mrs. Jefferson D. Yowell, the faithful and devoted mother of our fellow students, Quincy and Benjamin. Mr. Yowell has for some years been the janitor of our school.

The student body was represented at the funeral services on Wednesday evening by a representative from each class of the High School and several members of the faculty.

The sympathy of the student body and faculty is hereby tendered to the bereaved family.

We are particularly happy to note that Miss Wetherill is able to be up and about. She received a limited number of callers this week, and hopes within a week or two to be permitted by her physician to receive the many teachers, pupils and patrons who are waiting to carry her words of cheer.

Easter exercises were held in Assembly on Thursday morning. As usual, the music was a special feature. School closed for Thursday and Friday, to reopen on Monday morning.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

The Seniors had a banner,
'Twas black with orange writing,
It hung above Assembly
In a manner most inviting.

The more the Juniors saw it,
The more anxious they became
To take it from the platform,
But it stayed there just the same.

But at last they got together
And said it could not stay,
And so the banner disappeared
On a windy, cold March day.

"Now," said the wily Juniors,
"We have the Seniors riled."

But much to their disappointment
The Seniors only smiled.

But, quietly, two fellows
Were put upon its track,
And in the course of a day or so
They had the banner back.

So, when the play was given,
And the banner again was seen,
As someone said it,—it's just one more credit
For the year's class,—'Nineteen.

A couple of weeks ago we asked what so was March 14, '16.

Next Wednesday evening the annual congregational meeting will be held. Financial reports from all the organizations of the church will be given and an election of trustees will be held. Mr. A. J. Loos will preside.

In many ways last Sunday was the most notable and encouraging day in the history of the church. The Easter decorations were beautiful, the singing by the augmented choir was of such a high order as to be long remembered, and the attendance for the day broke all previous records. In the morning 362 crowded into the church edifice, and it became necessary to borrow chairs from the adjoining houses to furnish seats for all. There were over 200 present in the evening meeting. It was a wonderful Easter Day, and its fragrance will tarry with us always.

Church Notes.

Last Sunday was a great day. The church was filled three times for the services, and the children did themselves great credit for the excellent way in which they took their part.

The banquet of the Men's Association on Monday evening was very largely attended and all present were greatly pleased with the masterful address given by First Lieutenant Saylor. Other local speakers joined in making the occasion a real happy one.

The young people are planning a great social to close the best year we have had in that department. The attendance and interest has been quite inspiring and well maintained.

Miss Margaret Hopper sailed last week for reconstruction work in France. This is the second young woman from this church to go abroad for this kind of work, Miss Mary Super having sailed for Constantinople some time ago.

We have just learned that one of our boys, Mr. George Sheldon, has been in the hospital in Brest over the effects of being gassed the last few weeks of the fighting.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB

MISS MARGARET McGUIRE TO ADDRESS WOMEN'S CLUB ON TUESDAY, APRIL 29TH.

The subject Americanization will be most ably discoursed by Miss Margaret McGuire, principal of the McCall School of Philadelphia.

Miss McGuire presents this very vital subject in a very big way, giving it a far greater scope than just the word would imply. Miss McGuire will bring with her several children, products of this progressive school, who will demonstrate some of their accomplishments.

A special invitation has been issued to the school faculty of Narberth and the girl pupils of the grammar and high schools. The mothers of the girls are also extended, through these columns, a most cordial invitation to attend this meeting.

Tuesday, April 29th, will be the regular meeting of the Women's Community Club of Narberth. This is the annual election and members are urged to attend. In the event of unavoidable absence, a member so desiring may mail her preferences from the ballot as arranged and announced April 15, to Mrs. Wm. Livingston, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, before the above date, in a sealed envelope, providing the ballot bears her autograph.

In addition to the above, Miss Margaret McGuire will speak on "Americanization," as noted elsewhere in these columns.

MAIN LINE CANNING CLUB.

Some weeks ago the Main Line Employment Bureau started active work with its office in the Merion Title Building, Ardmore, Pa., Room 5. The results already obtained have been most satisfactory and the entire community has supported this public-spirited project in a way that clearly shows how great a need existed.

When this project was first launched we announced that practically all of the civic and philanthropic organizations along the Main Line were actively co-operating in its support. Due to an oversight we failed to mention the Main Line Canning Club. This organization, that has meant so much during the war times, was one of the first to offer both financial and moral support to the Main Line Employment Bureau and through its co-operation and that of the other organizations this Bureau is now firmly established and has proved to be of real service in our community.

The best way to build up a town is for each and every man in it not to strive to rend and tear down. Whenever a man in a town is doing well do not try to tear him down. All the residents of a town are partners, not opponents. In all likelihood the more business done by your rival the more you will do.

MINUTES OF THE FIRST COMMUNITY COUNCIL MEETING, TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 25, 1919, THE MILESTONE, BRYN MAWR, PA.

A meeting was held to organize for a Community Council on March 25th, to which forty-five organizations of the Main Line were invited.

Of these twenty were represented as follows:

1. Mr. Mutch, Federation of Churches.
2. Mr. Gane, Bryn Mawr Fire Company.
3. Mr. Braden, Y. M. C. A., Lower Merion.
4. Mr. Bowden, Y. M. C. A., Narberth.
5. Mr. Peterson, Yard and Garden, M. L. C. A.
6. Mrs. McCall, Woman Suffrage, Lower Merion.
7. Miss Hamilton, Employment Bureau.
8. Miss Edwards, Patriotic League.
9. Mr. Wilson, Christian Forum.
10. Miss Kingsbury, Bryn Mawr, College.
11. Mr. Watson, Main Line Forum.
12. Mr. Hartshorne, M. L. Citizens' Association.
13. Mrs. F. C. Sharpless, Weeden's Club.
14. Miss A. E. Johnson, W. C. T. U.
15. Mrs. Edw. Woolman, Preston Reading Room.
16. Mr. Edw. Woolman, Haverford College.
17. Miss S. Morris, Women's Club, Ardmore.
18. Mrs. McCall, Red Cross, M. L. Branch.
19. Miss Walbaum, Hospital S. Service.
20. Mr. Gane, Community Center.
21. Mr. Maule, M. L. Citizens' Association.
22. Miss Hilda Smith, Community Center.

A motion was made by Mr. Mutch that Mr. Alfred Maule be appointed temporary Chairman.

Miss Smith, of Community Center, asked that Secretary pro tem. also be appointed. Mr. Maule appointed Miss Walbaum.

The Chairman then reported that it had been considered advisable by several organizations of the Main Line to form a Community Council of all the organization from Overbrook to Villa Nova, before which things of importance to the whole community could be brought.

The idea had first been started by Mrs. Branson and Miss Smith, of the Community Center, Bryn Mawr, and he would, therefore, ask that Miss Smith present the plan to those present.

Miss Smith then reported that as many problems had come to her notice of late which were to be brought before a Committee of all the organizations on the Main Line, she felt it would be advisable to form a Community Council, before which all these problems of general interest might be presented. This would avoid many meetings, and publicity of any problems of importance, and would prevent duplication.

Miss Smith said there were several problems now before the community, namely:

1. Americanization.
2. A Soldiers' Memorial.
3. An Employment Bureau.
4. Public Libraries.
5. A Contagious Hospital.
6. A General Health Campaign.
7. Housing.
8. Use of School Buildings.
9. A Community Kitchen.
10. Activities of Returned Soldiers.

A small committee, continued Miss Smith, had been appointed to draw up a tentative set of by-laws to be brought before this particular meeting for correction and ratification.

This committee had proposed also that a calendar of meetings could be made to prevent gatherings and entertainments from occurring at the same time. It had suggested, further, some kind of skeleton plan by which a committee could work.

The general question of whether a Community Council was advisable was then up for discussion.

A motion by Mr. Hartshorne, duly seconded, was carried that a Community Council was desirable.

Mr. Braden, of the Lower Merion Y. M. C. A., stated that the action and power of the organization depended largely on the delegates, that the leaders, rather than the elected representatives, would be able to act more quickly, and would be more willing to assume authority.

After question from Mr. Hartshorne as to the power of the Council, Miss Smith stated that the Council should suggest action, and should also have problems brought to it for action.

On motion of Mr. Mutch, duly seconded, the items of the by-laws were taken up individually and were written as enclosed.

The motion was then carried that the Council request the use of one of the rooms in the Milestone, 845 Lancaster avenue, Bryn Mawr, Pa., for their meetings.

The motion of Mr. Mutch carried, that each organization be asked to send a representative, and that a copy of the minutes be sent them by Miss Hilda Smith. Miss Smith to call the next meeting at her convenience.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

EVELINA C. WALBAUM,

Secretary pro tem.

March 28, 1919.

METHODIST CHURCH CANTATA A GREAT SUCCESS UNDER DIRECTION OF PROF. CLARENCE E. NICE.

Great credit is due to the chorus choir at the Methodist Church in its exceptional rendering of "Immortality" last Sunday night at "The Little Church on the Hill." This cantata, composed by Stultz, has a beautifully triumphant theme from beginning to finish, and combined with the rich melodious tenor, bass and soprano solos, and male chorus, seems to portray to the greatest satisfaction the wonderful story of the Resurrection. There were 20 voices in the chorus, but led by Prof. Nice's skilful baton, appeared to be just one splendid full tone. The solo parts, taken by Miss Prescott, especially the Magdalene's sorrow in finding that her Lord had been taken away, were well portrayed and beautifully rendered, as was also the tenor solos by Mr. Stanley and the bass solo by Mr. Griffith.

Narberth certainly is fortunate indeed in having Prof. Nice as one of the townsmen, and it was due to his direction and training that this cantata was such a success.

Lower Merion Leads County

IN PROPERTY VALUATION AND PERSONAL RETURNS.

County Commissioners Will Start Hearing Appeals March 20th.

The finals of the triennial assessment have been made by the Assessors of the several first-class townships, their returns having been made during the past few days. The last comers were from the three big districts, namely, Lower Merion, Cheltenham and Abington. In the latter instance, the delay was due to the death of William J. Diller, and the substitution of another Assessor by the Court.

According to the face of the returns (subject, of course, to such corrections as the County Commissioners may later determine or as may be modified by reason of the successful appeal of individual taxpayers) the total valuation of all property in the county for taxation for county purposes, is $146,312,348 for 1919, as compared to $137,908,830 in 1918, or an increase in valuation of $8,403,518. The increased revenue to the county on the two mill rate on the face of the returns, is approximately $16,807.03. The total valuation of all valuables in the county subject to State taxation, according to the face of the returns, is placed at $128,549,764 for 1919, as compared to $125,137,636 for 1918, or an increase in valuation of $3,412,128, upon which the revenue at the State tax rate of four mills is, approximately, $13,648.51. This amount, of course, reverts to the county to be used in permanent improvements of highway.

Of the several districts Lower Merion leads in valuation. The valuation of properties for county tax purposes is $29,442,676 and that of investments and valuables for State tax purposes is fixed at $55,167,090. In property valuation, Norristown is second with a total of $14,986,650; Pottstown, third, with a property valuation of $13,731,885; Cheltenham, fourth, with a property valuation of $13,502,010, and Abington, fifth, with a property valuation of $9,561,286. In investments and other valuables, Cheltenham is second with a total valuation of $20,568,420; Norristown third, with a total valuation of $9,356,810; Abington, fourth, with a valuation of $6,151,108, and Pottstown next, with an investment valuation of $3,296,440.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
